

Import/export generic setup

Overview

Import/export generic setup

Upload setup

Download setup

Description

This section allows you to either upload or download the an XML file containing the generic setup of the agency. This generic setup is composed of the Custom field definitions and the Custom publish actions created for the particular agency and can be used to upload the the exact same settings to a different agency.