Pre-Release Note - April 2024

Validation Creditcard Expiration

Currently it is possible to store a credit card without specifying the expiry date. With the next Faces release a validation will be implemented which requires the credit card type, number and expiry date to store the card. For all existing credit cards in the system without an expiry date we will automatically set the past expiry date of 01/01.